

Hey, students, help save the arts!

Can you imagine what it would be like not to have music, dance, theater, or art classes in your school?

Some students don't have the chance to create artwork, write poetry, or play music at school. But you can help!

Tell the president of the United States how much the arts mean to you.

Ask our president to please save the arts in schools.

Note to PTAs:

Collect students' letters and send them in one envelope to

PTA Office of Programs and Public Policy

Attn: Start the Art Week
1400 L Street NW, Suite 300
Washington, DC 20005-9998

Mail by December 15, 2008

It's as simple as 1-2-3.

1. On an 8½" x 11" sheet of paper, write, "Dear Mr. President, Please save the arts!" Include your first name (don't give your last name), your school's name, and your grade level.
2. On the reverse side of your note, draw a picture that shows how important the arts are to you.
3. Submit your letter to the PTA in your school. The PTA national office will deliver your letter to the president of the United States.