

COMPREHENSIVE GUIDANCE COUNSELING SERVICES

- Whereas, Students in school are vulnerable to the pressures and problems of the society in which they are nurtured; and
- Whereas, Families need information, assistance, and support in raising children in a rapidly changing society; and
- Whereas, The failure to identify learning problems and difficulties experienced by young children may result in problems of greater magnitude and severity as they mature; and
- Whereas, The responsibility for providing appropriate educational programs, counseling, and coordinating services lies with state and local agencies; now therefore be it
- Resolved, That the National PTA encourage state PTAs/PTSAs to support the development of a comprehensive guidance counseling plan which provides services for all children; and be it further
- Resolved, That the National PTA encourage state and local PTAs/ PTSAs to seek funding for implementation of comprehensive guidance counseling services.
- Adopted: by the 1983 Convention Delegates
- Reviewed: by the 1993 and 1998 Convention Resolutions Committee