

Be Internet Awesome Family Workshop – Brave Volunteer Guide

READ:

- Look over this entire sheet, including the bonus resources below, before the event starts
- Make sure everyone in your group has a family guide before you begin the activity
- Give your group two minutes to read through your section of the family guide (pages 23 – 28)

SHARE:

- Instruct your group to turn to their neighbor and share a story of a time their kids or their kids' friends were internet brave.
- Instruct members of the group to then share with their partner the rules, suggestions and guidelines they tell their kids about being brave online.

ASK:

- As a whole group, work together to complete the sentence “An internet brave kid will...”. Write your answer on the large sheet of sticky paper.
- As a whole group, work together to complete the sentence “An internet brave kid does not...”. Write your answer on the large sheet of sticky paper.
- Ask for one volunteer to represent the group and present the poster that you created.

BONUS:

- Your Goal:
 - Create a community definition of Being Internet Brave and an example of how to ask for help.
- Key Family Take-Aways:
 - Understand the options for getting help both online and offline.
 - Encourage kids to ask for help when things get negative or they feel uncomfortable
- Next Step:
 - Start a short conversation with your kid tonight by asking them what being internet brave means to them.
