

Be Internet Awesome Family Workshop – Smart Volunteer Guide

READ:

- Look over this entire sheet, including the bonus resources below, before the event starts
- Make sure everyone in your group has a family guide before you begin the activity
- Give your group two minutes to read through your section of the family guide (pages 4-9)

SHARE:

- Instruct your group to turn to their neighbor and share an example of when their kids or their kids' friends were not smart on the internet.
- Instruct members of their group to then share with their neighbor the rules, suggestions and guidelines they tell their kids about sharing online.

ASK:

- As a whole group, work together to complete the sentence, “An internet Smart kid will...”. Write your answer on the large sheet of sticky paper.
- As a whole group, work together to complete the sentence, “An internet smart kid does not share...”. Write your answer on the large sheet of sticky paper.
- Ask for one volunteer to represent the group and present the poster that you created.

BONUS:

- Your Goal:
 - To create a community definition of Being Internet Smart and an example of how to Share with Care.
- Key Family Take-Aways:
 - Identify—which types of personal information can be found online
 - Understand—what kinds of personal information should be kept private
 - Remember—that everyone deserves to have their information kept private
- Next Step:
 - Start a short conversation with your kid tonight by asking them what being internet smart means to them.
