

3 Weeks before The Smart Talk Conversation:

- Gather supplies needed
- Plan for food – solicit donations of produce and/or healthy snacks from a grocery store food supplier.
- Research and schedule a presenter (i.e., digital safety expert) to give the main presentation
- Prepare marketing materials- program banners and flyers
- Advertise The Smart Talk Conversation to families through PTA and school channels (i.e., school newsletter, school website, all-staff email, family engagement office, school district e-mail) and be sure to invite your local newspaper or submit and an on-line news story to your local newspaper.
- Determine responsibilities including what roles your PTA members will play, what roles your volunteers will play.
- Ensure materials are accessible – translate items like the handouts, surveys, promotional flyers, other materials if necessary.
- Schedule transportation for families who may need assistance getting to the venue
- Recruit volunteers to provide translation for non-Native English-speaking families during the event.

One Week before The Smart Talk Conversation:

- Confirm and train volunteers for program prep, set-up, and breakdown.
- Confirm that additional supplies have been ordered.
- Print items for the event including The Smart Talk Quick Guide, photo release form, and a quick guide of your choice from Connect Safely
- Send out event reminders through school communications. **Remember to translate documents for non-Native English-speaking families
- Determine how the space will be set up.

Day of The Smart Talk Conversation:

- Help set up the event, including any technology that will be necessary to give the presentation
- Coordinate time and location that the presenter/speaker should arrive
- Pick up food or coordinate with company that is catering the event

During The Smart Talk Conversation:

- Have someone “check in” the families – sign-in and complete the photo release form (this is a grant requirement)
- Take pictures and videos to share with National PTA; these can also be used in your local communications.
- Engage families in the hands-on, interactive Smart Talk tool
- Clean up after the event.

Day after The Smart Talk Conversation:

- Complete and send PTA Leader Feedback Form to National PTA (this is a grant requirement)
- Gather feedback from PTA members, volunteers, and community partners about what went well with the event and what should be changed for future events.
- Discuss how you will continue to do this work in the future.